Present at 8-9-2011 meeting: Horstman, Claxton, C. Smith, LaBore, Creech, Ivers, Moore, Pottle, Morton, Allen, Firman.

Business:

The club agreed that the President (Josh Horstman) and Treasurer (Derek Trimmer) will represent the club on the new bank account for the Club at Ameriana Bank.

Josh Horstman noted that new officers' manuals have not yet arrived from Toastmasters. They should arrive soon. He also mentioned that Toastmasters is doing a "brand refresh" and the changes will take place between now and the next meeting. He said that dues are rising to $36 semiannually in the next half of the Toastmasters year.

Meg Claxton handed out club Mentor/Mentee sheets; mentor and mentee pairs are Meg Claxton and Steve Moore; John LaBore and Dan Ivers; Josh Horstman and Calvin Hendryx-Parker; and Ron Creech and Blair Erwin. There will be "last chance" officer training in the near future and Meg or Josh will forward information about the training when locations, dates, and times are known.

Meeting Notes:

Chad Allen presented the first prepared speech on "Turning Budget Woes into Budget Wows". Meg Claxton presented the second prepared speech on "How to be a Distinguished Club" from The Successful Club Series Manual.

Josh Horstman provided opportunities in Table Topics related to "Batman's Butler". Those responding during the TT session included LaBore, Pottle, and Moore.

Respectfully submitted: John LaBore, Greenfield Toastmasters Club #3326 Secretary
