Members present at meeting: Horstman, Claxton, C. Smith, LaBore, Trimmer, Creech, Erwin, Ivers, Lytle.

Business:

Club President Josh Horstman noted that the new club banner has been ordered and we are waiting for it to come in. Josh also noted that we (as a club) met a challenge posed to all clubs in the district for the previous Toastmasters year of having a net gain of 5 members; as a result the club received a $10 gift certificate to buy Toastmasters items.

Club VP for Education Meg Claxton noted the first-chance training was last Saturday. The next upcoming training opportunity is Saturday, Jan 21, at the Lilly Corporate Center in Indianapolis.

Meeting Notes:

Catherine Smith presented a prepared speech that was speech #4 (How To Say It) in the CC manual; the title of the speech was "Authentic Americans or Bumbling Bureaucratic Buffoons". John LaBore presented the second prepared speech, as speech #2 (Conquering the "Cold Call") in the Persuasive Speaking manual, which included a speech on salesmanship from the standpoint of cold calls, role-playing a cold-calling situation with member Josh Horstman, and a summary and then questions and answers with the audience. Dan Ivers provided opportunities in Table Topics related to the meeting's theme "Christmas Carols". Those responding during the TT session included Ervin, Lytle, and Horstman.

Respectfully submitted: John LaBore, Greenfield Toastmasters Club #3326 Secretary
