Meg Claxton reported on the Toastmasters booth that was set up during the "Health and Wellness Fair" for employees on April 19 at Elanco. More than 50 in-person contacts were made by Meg, John, and Dan during the 2 hours of the fair and at least 52 different people picked up Toastmasters brochures and literature, and all were informed of the date and time of the next meeting at Elanco at 6pm on May 1.

Meg also noted that the District Conference is this weekend (April 28-29) in Columbus, IN. For more information visit the District website <http://www.toastmastersd11.org/conferences.html>

Meeting Notes:

This meeting (April 24) was structured in a debate format. Two club members are running for elected offices: Chris Lytle for Indiana State Senate, and Earl Smith for the Hancock County Council. Two club members, John LaBore and Ron Creech, presented questions to each candidate and the candidates were given a defined amount of time for responses and rebuttals. Dan Ivers and Paul Pottle provided formal evaluations of the candidates' responses, and other club members also provided brief evaluations.

Guests at the meeting were Ken Lytle, father of Chris Lytle, and Rachel Parks, a student at Indiana Wesleyan. Both shared brief comments at the end of the meeting.

Next meeting at Elanco Animal Health world headquarters, Greenfield: May 1, 2012, 6:00pm.

Next meeting at Ameriana Bank conference room, Greenfield: May 8, 11:15am.

Respectfully submitted: John LaBore, Greenfield Toastmasters Club #3326 Secretary.
