New signs from Toastmasters International came in that will be placed outside the bank on meeting days. Ron Creech will handle getting those set up each meeting day. Seven members were paid up on dues for the upcoming six months (October-March) as of the beginning of the meeting. Meg has contacted the other current member to find out his status. On September 22, VP Public Relations Sean Richards attended the Hancock County 4-H Awards program and presented the Public Speaking Contest Award to the 3rd grade boy that won the contest. Members made personal contributions toward a gift card of $25 that was presented along with the award. President John LaBore reported that the club is now registered as a member of the Hancock County Career Success Coalition.
